

Transaction Focus is a growing International Business Development company headquartered in the UK.

Transaction Focus can enable North American and other overseas companies of all sizes to export their products and services to new markets in Europe, North America, Brazil and Asia.

We will create your market entry strategy, search out and manage distributors and even source, recruit train and manage sales and marketing teams in each territory.

Transaction Focus always focuses on attaining a WIN WIN ROI (Return on Investment) focussed business model.

With Transaction Focus, you no longer need to open new offices in each market and recruit staff.

We source, recruit, manage and motivate best of breed sales and marketing teams that sign orders on your behalf.

We are specialists at test selling and test marketing....Why spend significant time and resources launching your product in a new market when you can spend a few thousand Euros to find out whether your product can be successful with Transaction Focus' proven methodology.

Transaction Focus would like to partner with you to help you formulate your international dream team.
